Graham Hall Regatta Sunday - No wind at Navy for the Graham Hall Team Race Regatta. The results from Saturday at Navy stand and the College of Charleston wins the Graham Hall Memorial Team Race.

John Jackson Regatta Saturday - The first day of racing at Georgetown saw light winds but very close racing. One complete round robin was sailed with a single sail-off to determine who would be in the top 4. With the addition of motorboats from the Potomac River Sailing Association, we were able to use a limited umpiring system with coaches from each team serving as umpires. This system worked very well and after 29 races only one protest was filed. Coaches were advised by Chief Judge Peter Johns who umpired along with the coaches on the water. The first seven races were sailed on the Potomac River. The southerly in the river died by noon and after a postponement on land the racing resumed in the Washington Sailing Marina Lagoon. Winds for races 8-28 were SW at 5-10mph and shifty.

John Jackson Regatta Sunday - Racing started at 10:30 in a light SE wind. The first round robin was completed by 1PM and that coincided with the wind dying. At 2PM the Race Committee made the decision to sail a Championship Final Four and send the bottom four teams home. A light SSW wind filled in around 2:30PM and the final four was finished. Many thanks are due to our chief umpires Peter Johns and Chris Petracco who along with the coaches helped to make sure the races were decided on the water. Over the course of the weekend there were only three yellow flags that resulted in protest hearings. Many thanks also to the Georgetown sailors who ran the event.
